"Retreat... Relax... Rejuvenate" as you let stress melt away in scenic Carroll County, Ohio.

Unplug from technology and rediscover your love of nature, small towns and great food as you explore Carroll County. We are just a short drive from many of the major cities in Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Our charming county offers just about everything, with the exception of four-lane highways. Visitors find themselves immediately relaxing as they travel along our picturesque countryside. Our curvy and windy roads make the trip part of the experience as you navigate the foothills of Ohio’s Appalachian Mountains.

As you travel through the countryside, you will notice Mail Pouch Tobacco Barns, as well as Quilt Block Barns. In Carrollton, there is a Quilt Block Square and a compilation of the blocks on the side of the Virginia Restaurant. Murals are found throughout downtown Minerva, both historic, like those on the side of the Minerva Historical Society, and pop-culture, like those found on a fence on Market and Line streets.

Reconnect with Mother Nature as you fish on Leesville Lake, go boating on Atwood Lake, or go hiking on trails at Bluebird Farm Park and Atwood Lake Park.

You will be able to enjoy Mother Nature firsthand, whether at a primitive tent campsite, RV park or cabin. If you don’t want to be that close to nature, Carroll County has two hotels, which were built within the last six years, and three bed and breakfasts that offer a variety of amenities.

Explore the Shores Geotrail in the Atwood Lake area gives you a chance to discover places you might not normally go as you search for the 9 geocaches while enjoying the beauty of Atwood Lake. But I will warn you, we didn’t make it easy for you. You don’t have to stop exploring once you finish the geotrail, there are several other geocaches waiting to be discovered throughout the area.

If you are looking to visit Northeast Ohio, Carroll County provides a great base to explore the area. Our proximity to Pittsburgh, Canton and Amish Country makes us a perfect day trip with our museums, lakes, restaurants and festivals. History buffs will be able to learn about the “Fighting McCooks” at the McCook House Civil War Museum and then visit a monument heralding the last skirmish by John Hunt Morgan’s Raiders. Browse Ashton’s 5- & 10-Cent Store before discovering the story behind its 85+ year history at the Ashton House Museum. Shop our antique shops found throughout the county. Revisit your childhood at Susie’s Museum of Childhood, located at Bluebird Farm Park, as you peruse the collection of toys.

Festivals and other happenings offer quick alternative weekend escapes for travelers. Algonquin Mill Fall Festival, Atwood Area Fall Festival and the Great Trail Festival blend living history with crafts and music. Carroll County has beautiful woodlands, lakes and wildlife located throughout the county, making it a great choice for your getaway.
TAKE A COUNTRY DRIVE

You can discover historic landmarks, shops and restaurants as you explore Carroll County’s gentle rolling hills and alongside its clear, blue waters. The countryside is abundant with farms offering scenes rich with cattle, horses, alpacas and even buffalo.

With no four-lane highways, the drive is part of the visitor experience. Carroll County’s beautiful countryside is a feast for the eyes, especially in the fall.

For the past couple of years, the area has seen an influx of oil-and-gas industry as part of the Utica Shale play. Since the county has been the epicenter of the Utica Shale, visitors may occasionally see oil rigs on the horizon. The oil wells are not usually able to be seen from the roads and do not diminish the county’s beauty.

Farm to fork is not a new trend in Carroll County, but a way of life. While we do have some fast-food and chain restaurants, most are locally owned and operated. They use local vendors to provide the freshest ingredients to create their own customer favorite that tantalizes the taste buds.

After enjoying a delicious meal, you can find that special gift at one of our antique shops or specialty shops. Kids of all ages enjoy the agriculture-related toys at Bud’s Farm Toys in Carrollton. Ashton’s 5- & 10-cent Store brings history to life with its creaky floor and hard-to-find items.

Carroll County is filled with unique places to eat and shop. Our local alpaca farms sell items made from alpaca fleece. During the summer, there are two farmers markets, as well as individual markets located at area farms.
HISTORY LIVES HERE

Carroll County was formed on Christmas Day in 1832 from Stark, Columbiana, Harrison, Jefferson and Tuscarawas counties and named after Charles Carroll, the last surviving signer of the Declaration of Independence.

The Seven Ranges Terminus, located west of Magnolia at the junction of Stark, Tuscarawas and Carroll Counties, was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1976. The stone surveying marker marked the completion of the first step in opening the lands northwest of the Ohio River for settlement.

The county sits along one of the major overland routes from the east. The Great Trail, also known as the Tuscarawas Path, was used by Native Americans, European explorers, fur traders, missionaries, land agents and military expeditions. During the French-Indian War, Maj. Robert Rogers and 38 rangers passed through Carroll County en route to Fort Pitt after taking Fort Detroit from the French. The Continental Army under General Lachlan McIntosh camped along the route during the American Revolution.
Major Daniel McCook and his family made their home in Carrollton from 1837-1848. McCook, who along with his nine sons, two brothers and five nephews, would be known as the “Fighting McCooks” during the Civil War. The family home on the top of Public Square is now a museum focusing on the family’s bravery on the battlefield and features the Henry Rifle he used to protect the White House in the early days of the Civil War.

McCook ironically died as Ohioans hunted the Confederate General John Hunt Morgan, who would ultimately be captured in Columbiana County after a skirmish with Union soldiers near Mechanicstown. This would be the northernmost battle in the Civil War.

The McCook House, along with the Courthouse and the Van Horne Building, are on the National Register of Historic Places. Also on the registry are the John Herrington House and Herrington Bethel Church in Augusta Township, Patrick Hull House near Oneida, Kilgore Union Presbyterian Church in Kilgore, Petersburg Mill in Union Township, Henry and Mary Pottorf House and Farmstead in Augusta Township, St. Mary’s of Morges Catholic Church in Rose Township, and Wheeling and Lake Erie Railroad Station in Minerva.

Agricultural Fun

Agriculture is important to Carroll County residents. Various types of farms dot the rolling hills and scenic vistas. The three alpaca farms welcome visitors to tour their shops and give people an opportunity to see the animals up close. Bison roam another farm, which is the site of the Great Trail Festival.

Sink your teeth into an apple grown at a seven generation orchard and peruse the family’s farmers market. There are several farm markets located on the farms throughout the county that you can get plants in the spring as well as produce throughout the growing season. During the summer and fall, two community farmers markets feature plants, fruits, bake goods and craft items.

Animals highlight Carroll County’s fair as area teens showcase their cows, horses, goats, lambs, rabbits and poultry. For those who enjoy the machinery side of agriculture, the fair also features a combine demolition derby and tractor pulls. Another highlight is a three-day tractor show in October.
Carroll County is just a short drive from Akron, Canton, Cleveland, Columbus, Pittsburgh and Wheeling. While in the area, be sure to visit our surrounding counties: Columbiana, Harrison, Jefferson, Stark and Tuscarawas to discover what else the area has to offer.
Carroll County has a small-town atmosphere and a rich history. Those elements are never more apparent than when you attend our local festivals. Beginning in May, there is a local festival nearly every weekend, giving visitors unique experiences for their family.

During the summer, you will find tractor pulls, demolition derbies and local community festivals, called homecomings. The events feature parades, music, rides and, of course, great food.

You will be able to tap your feet and dance at two summer music festivals — Jazz and Art Fest in Minerva, and ALIVE Christian Music Festival at Atwood Lake Park.

In July, you can join residents and visitors at the county fair. Area teens showcase their animal projects at this agricultural fair. A pari-mutual race, tractor pulls and demolition derbies, including one that features combines, fill the grandstand. Flite Fest brings enthusiasts of radio-control planes and drones together to fly, battle and build.

As summer comes to an end, three multi-day festivals showcase the area’s wonderful fall foliage. “Leaf peepers” enjoy an opportunity to hear music, purchase primitive art and crafts and eat great food, like buffalo burgers and sauerkraut. The Great Trail Festival in Malvern kicks off the season and focuses on primitive art, folk music and re-enactors from the French-Indian era. The Atwood Area Fall Festival at Atwood Lake Park features a pow-wow, car show, primitive art and music. You will be able to go back in time to a pioneer village at the Algonquin Mill Fall Festival.

As families come together for the holidays, Santa Claus will make three visits to the area during annual parades. Open houses at the McCook House Civil War Museum and Ashton House Museum will get you in the Christmas spirit. Enjoy a round of golf at the Gobbler Open at Carroll Meadows Golf Course.

You will be able to celebrate great experiences, food and people with the gorgeous backdrop of Carroll County.

CARROLLTON

Carrollton, the county seat, was platted on Oct. 4, 1815, by Peter Bohart. The village was originally known as “Centreville” since it sits at the crossroads of the routes from Steubenville to Canton and Lisbon to New Philadelphia.

It is home to the famous Fighting McCooks of the Civil War. Their home, located at the south end of the town square, is now a museum.

Several antique shops and other stores line up around Carrollton’s Public Square. Located at the intersection of state Routes 9, 39, 43 and 332. Public Square continues to be a centerpiece of the village with its century-old county courthouse as the cornerstone. Carrollton continues to offer visitors a small-town atmosphere.

You can enjoy a variety of culinary experiences with the specialties found at a variety of restaurants, delis and bakeries.

Located 4 miles south of the Carrollton, the Algonquin Mill Fall Festival celebrates local heritage with demonstrations, displays and music at the Carroll County Historical Society’s mill complex. The pioneer village features a working flouring mill that grinds flour to be sold during the festival. Historical society members start making apple butter in the fall and prepare nearly 8,000 pounds of homemade sauerkraut each year.

ATWOOD & LEESVILLE LAKES

Atwood and Leesville lakes are a great place to fish, boat and relax.

The lakes are part of the Muskingum Watershed Conservancy District. The man-made lakes were designed to provide flood mitigation, but provide a beautiful source of recreation. Both lakes have marinas, camping, hiking, and boat rentals.

The Atwood Lake Region offers two marinas, swimming, camping, cabins, hiking, dining, and boat rentals. Atwood Lake Park features primitive and RV camping, cabins and a swimmer’s beach. It hosts the ALIVE Festival, a Christian music festival, and the Atwood Area Fall Festival. The park has undergone several improvements over the last couple of years including a new welcome center, upgrading some of the seasonal camping areas as well as a new transit campground. The new area has full-hook ups for RV’s, with amazing views of the lake and new restroom/shower house.

During the warmer months, you can enjoy a meal right by the water at both the Lighthouse Bistro and The Dock Marina and Grill.

Leesville Lake is a fisherman’s paradise and is known for its record-size Muskies, as well as channel catfish, bluegill, saugeye, perch and bass. It has two marinas with campgrounds and boat rentals.

The lake is also home to several residential youth camps – Ohio FFA Camp Muskingum, Camp Aldersgate, Camp Falcon, Camp NEOSA, Camp Wakonda, Camp Firebird and Camp Roosevelt.

Both Atwood and Leesville lakes provide a relaxing and beautiful destination to spend a day or week.
MAGNOLIA

In 1834, Richard Elson and John W. Smith platted the village of Magnolia. Elson soon established the Magnolia Flouring Mill, perhaps the most notable structure remaining in the area. Built in 1834, the mill is strategically located on the Sandy and Beaver Canal.

The mill continues to operate today, offering cornmeal and public tours. The community also celebrates its history with its Sandy Beaver Canal Days festival.

You will also see the Elson Homestead, an Underground Railroad site, and Magnolia’s restored Isaac Miller Inn. Taggart’s Ice Cream Parlor and Restaurant, located in the inn, is open for lunch, dinner and dessert, and showcases some of the area’s rich history. Tozzi’s Restaurant offers a fine dining experience.

LEESVILLE NORTH FORK MARINA

Leesville North Fork Marina & Campground (formerly known as Petersburg Marina) is an amazingly peaceful escape. Amenities include boat rental, cabin rental, seasonal dockage, nightly & seasonal camping, ship’s store, bait & tackle and much more. Located only 4 miles south of Carrollton just off of Route 332.

MINERVA

The village of Minerva is located at the congruence of Carroll, Stark and Columbiana counties and at the intersection of U.S. Route 30, known as the Lincoln Highway, and state Route 183.

John Whitacre purchased 123 acres of land in 1818 to build a mill. The community was named after his niece Minerva Ann Taylor, who was born in 1833.

The community started to grow with the Sandy and Beaver Canal and the Pennsylvania Railroad brought even more to the town. Willard and Isaac Pennock patented the United States’ first steel railroad car in the 19th century.

Minerva is also referred to as the Lost French Gold Village. The local legend states French soldiers buried one ton of gold along the Great Trail near Minerva during the French Indian War to prevent the British from getting it. To date, it has never been found.

Minerva holds a Discover Downtown on the brick Market Street on the second Friday of each month. It also hosts a Jazz and Arts Festival in May and an Oktoberfest in September, where you can learn how to pan for that elusive gold.

MALVERN

Malvern, once known as “Clay City,” was the center of the clay and brick industry in the early 1900s, attracting many immigrants to the area to work its brickyards. Incorporated in 1869, Malvern is the second largest village in the county. It is located in Brown Township, the oldest and largest township in Carroll County.

Malvern sits along the Great Indian Trail that traverses the area between Fort Pitt (Pittsburgh) and Chillicothe. Col. Henry Bouquet and 1,500 volunteers left Fort Pitt in 1764 to free white frontiersmen taken captive by Chief Pontiac and his Ottawa tribe. They camped along the Great Trail near the Pekin Bridge (state Route 183).

Today, the French-Indian War is revisited each year with a rendezvous held during the Great Trail Festival, an arts and crafts festival. The festival grounds is also home to a herd of buffalo.
AUGUSTA

Platted in 1811, the small village of Augusta is situated in northern Carroll County along state Route 9. The town prospered in the 1800s with a hotel, grist mill, pharmacy, blacksmith, wagon maker, general store, and dress shop. A post office was established in 1828. Today, traces of that rich history remain in the descendants of its first inhabitants. Augusta is surrounded by orchards and rolling farmland. Fresh produce and beef are available from a seven-generation family farm. The area has a working alpaca farm and gift shop, growing Amish community, and many churches steeped in genealogical discovery.

AROUND THE COUNTY

Carroll County is a rural community founded on agriculture, which continues to be one of the main businesses of today. Visitors have an opportunity to discover Carroll County’s rich agri-tourism while enjoying the small-town charm. From May to November, two farmers markets offer locally grown produce, homemade products, baked goods and crafts. Carroll County is also the home of Empire Chestnut Company, one of the country’s oldest and largest commercial chestnut orchards. In addition to the traditional farms, you will find three alpaca farms that sell items made from the fleece.

MANFULL ORCHARDS FARM MARKET

This Augusta landmark has offered local produce since 1853. Seven generations later, you will find fresh fruits and vegetables, baked goods, jams, local honey and maple syrup, country goods, housewares and rustic furniture. Open July to December: M-F, 10-5; Saturday, 10-4. Closed Sunday. Call 330-895-4861, visit on Facebook or ManfullOrchards.com.

CAMPS

Youth flock to Carroll County during the summer months, due in large part to the area’s lakes and recreational areas. There are 11 youth camps in the county — the largest concentration in Ohio, offering everything from archery, boating, crafts, and fishing to horseback riding, creative arts and Bible study.

Carroll County is home to Seven Ranges Boy Scout Reservation, Ohio’s FFA Camp Muskingum, Camp Firebird and Roosevelt, Eastern Ohio Sports Complex and Falcon Camp. Several of the camps are religious-affiliated, such as Camp ECCO (Evangelical Congregational), Camp Wakonda (Christ Presbyterian), Camp Aldersgate (United Methodist), Camp Gideon (Evangelical Friends), Camp NEOSA (Salvation Army), and Elkhorn Valley Christian Service Camp.

FALCON CAMP

Widely recognized as Ohio’s premier summer camp since 1959, Falcon offers a beautiful lakefront setting, talented staff and wide range of activities. “Fun for Now, Skills for Life” truly defines what Falcon is about. Boys and girls choose their own schedules within a general framework, separate activities with planned coed events. 1:4 staff/camper ratio allows individual instruction and attention. Most of all it’s a great time! www.falconcamp.com

OHIO FFA CAMPS

Nestled in the southwest corner of Carroll County on Leesville Lake, Ohio FFA Camp Muskingum is the perfect place for both small and large groups. FFA Camp is a year round facility that can accommodate up to 820 individuals with modern meeting areas and restroom facilities. Ohio FFA Camp Muskingum has been “Teaching, Serving, and Growing since 1942.” Call today to discuss how FFA Camp can serve you! 3266 Dyewood Rd., SW, Carrollton, OH, 330-627-2208. www.ffacamp.com
